Wuyeepuyôq (Welcome)

The Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation would like to welcome you to Schemitzun, the Feast of Green Corn and Dance; giving honor to Mantoo (Creator) provider of all things and celebrating our harvest, ancestors, elders, veterans, family and Native American heritage.

We are pleased to offer you a glimpse of our culture and heritage during this drug and alcohol free event. The Schemitzun Powwow is open to the public and is wheelchair accessible. Fun for all ages! Rain or shine.

The Green Corn Powwow is a great place to make new friends and reconnect with old ones!

SCHEMITZUN

Feast of Green Corn & Dance

Saturday and Sunday

August 24 - 25, 2013

Authentic Arts and Crafts: Fine Native American arts & crafts will be offered including beadwork, baskets, soaps, wampum, paintings, tee shirts, herbal teas, books, prints & more!

Visit our 17th Century Eastern Woodland Village Exhibit: There will be demonstrations of wampum making, storytelling, net making, open fire cooking; listen to stories and share our rich heritage in this unique, living exhibit. It's a great way to educate your children and understand the Eastern Woodland Village way of life in this historical context!

Share in our Native Cuisine: Vendors will be preparing traditional and contemporary Native foods such as Native Tacos, Fried Bread, Buffalo Burgers and much, much more!

It's All About The Dance!

Join our social dances. Watch our exhibition dancers and contestants move with skill to the ancient rhythms of the drum, which is the heartbeat of our people! Competitive Dancing will be on the Cultural grounds at the Mashantucket Pequot Reservation.
