Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation Presents: 26th Annual SCHMITZUN

Feast of Green Corn & Dance

Saturday and Sunday

August 26– 27, 2017

Authentic Arts and Crafts: Fine Native American arts & crafts will be offered including beadwork, baskets, soaps, wampum, paintings, tee shirts, herbal teas, books, prints & more!

Visit our 17th Century Eastern Woodland Village Exhibit: There will be demonstrations of wampum making, net making, and open fire cooking. Come listen to the stories of our ancestors and experience rich heritage in this unique, living exhibit.

Share in our Native Cuisine: Vendors will be preparing traditional and contemporary Native foods such as Native Tacos, Fried Bread, Buffalo Burgers and much, much more!

A great experience for the whole family!

Giving Thanks to The Creator through Song & Dance

Join our social dances. Watch our Contest & exhibition dancers move with skill to the ancient rhythms of the drum, which is the heartbeat of our people! Competitive Traditional Dancing will be on the Cultural grounds at the Mashantucket Pequot Reservation.
